

Fox Flooring Company Overview

Since its founding in 2009, we have brought our dedication to customer satisfaction and commitment to superior installation services in every project we are involved in.

We have a history of success.

Fox Flooring holds fast to the core values of developing and maintaining quality relationships. Therefore, our motto keeps the customer at the heart of everything. Our team possesses a variety of skills allowing us to provide work that is of quality. Most of our work comes from word-of-mouth. That means existing customers help us stay in business. And we love that. We believe in effective communication from start to finish.
